About the author

Beatrice Holloway is a playwright and author who has been writing children's stories since 2014. In 2015, Beatrice was appointed Children's Storyteller on Hillingdon Narrowboats Association which has led her to write about canal life. Beatrice is a retired teacher and a member of The Society of Women Writers and Journalists and the Society of Authors.

She has written a number of children's books: the Towing Path series and the Rhys Adventures well as a number of science experiments for children.

The London Borough of Hillingdon library service published two of her children's stories and awarded her with a Certificate of merit – 'In recognition of an outstanding contribution to the Arts'. Beatrice was also awarded a Lottery Grant to write a commissioned historical play: Commoner to Coronet.

Beatrice has written three adult books, A man from the North East, Elusive Destiny and Archie's Children and has a non-fiction book looking at the Facts, fiction and folklore of Christmas.
