

Connie's son, recently released from prison,
visits his elderly mother.

About the author

Beatrice Holloway is a playwright and author who has been writing children's stories since 2014. In 2015, Beatrice was appointed Children's Storyteller on Hillingdon Narrowboats Association. The London Borough of Hillingdon library service has published two of her children's stories and awarded her with a Certificate of merit — 'In recognition of an outstanding contribution to the Arts'. Beatrice was also awarded a Lottery Grant to write a commissioned historical play: Commoner to Coronet.

Two adult books, A man from the North East and Elusive Destiny were re-printed in 2018, while a third novel, Archie's Children, was published in 2019.

Beatrice is a retired teacher and a member of The Society of Women Writers and Journalists and the Society of Authors.
