Bus Stop Blues

From the playwright Melville Lovatt comes Bus Stop Blues. This new collection of four short comedy dramas will not only amuse, but make audiences realize that waiting for a bus can be a lot more exciting than they may have at first thought!

With plausible, entertaining characters, these little gems are indeed perfect for being staged professionally or by an amateur company.

Barbara Towell

Playwright and author of A Little Piece For Mother

These four offbeat, ironic, very funny short plays are brilliantly realized and an absolute delight!

The two monologues, First Love and The Dream are in the same high quality league as his monologue collection, Standing Alone.

Michael Stewart, Theatre critic for Islington Tribune

The Dream, a monologue, won the Harrow Writers Circle 2018 Writing Competition.
