

Book 3 in the Craig Carter series

Craig is exploring space when a phone call from a stranger informs him that Tanus has been captured by Andocia.

About the author

Ilona lives in Johannesburg, South Africa with her husband. She has three grown up children, three dogs and five cats.

She has been writing since the age of thirteen and has had a number of articles published in magazines. Two recipe books and an historical book about a church have also been written by the author.

The idea for the Craig Carter series was penned at the age of seventeen, but life happened and the book was put on hold for many reasons.
