

Rodney The Sweep & Jemima Four Foot

Twitch's New Home
Mystery at the Manor

by Paul Ross

About Rodney the Chimney Sweep

Rodney the Chimney Sweep lives in Sweeps End Farm with his family; Ma his wife and Jemima their seven-year-old daughter.

Chimney sweeps are renowned as being lucky.

The luck of the chimney sweep for Rodney is he is able to speak to all kinds of animals and even trees on a good day.

Jemima "Four Foot" helps her dad (Dar) at weekends and also has the luck of a chimney sweep. She can speak to all the equipment a chimney sweep could hope to use. She has been given her nickname "Four Foot" by Bristle, the main chimney brush. This was when Jemima had reached the same height as Flex the lead chimney sweeping rod that stands four feet tall.

Jemima's mum (Ma) has the luck of a heart of gold and can always see a rainbow in the darkest of clouds. With her tool box she can mend and fix anything.

Note on the book

Get creative: Add to the images, colour them in and send them to the publisher (tslbooks.uk) or post them on Facebook – Rodneythesweep. We may even use one in a future book. Don't like writing? Send us a short video clip.

Be different: buy direct from the author or tslbooks.uk