

Literature is packed with impressions of blindness, whether graphic or symbolic. A handful of enduring characters has enriched our understanding and entertainment, yet most have been ill-informed or poorly imagined. In many cases the character has been used to oil the mechanism of a wider plot, rendering the characterisation incidental.

What Alexander Crombie aims at in his debut novel, Become the Wind, is the inside story. With the help of an engaging cast of characters, he succeeds in fusing pathos and insight with episodes of high drama, but without attempting to lecture the Reader.

This after all is a novel with the novel's imperative to TURN THE PAGE!

For entertainment value alone, it is a MUST READ.

About the author

Alexander Crombie lives in the English Midlands. He is married to Caroline; they have three children. In 2004 he was awarded the MBE for Services to the Blind Community.

Alexander lost his sight during his teens, since when he has experienced many of the joys and sorrows, the crises and life changes that impact the story BECOME THE WIND. It is his heart-felt hope that you will come with him into the world of his principle character, and that you will want to TURN THE PAGE.

Category: Fiction

ISBN:

978-1-914245-75-6

978-1-914245-78-7 (ebook)

Format:

Paperback & eBook –
February 2021
(136 pages)

Available at tslbooks.uk &
through online retailers

Price:

Retail £13.21

TSL £9.75

eBook: £2.66 (only Lulu.com)

Book title: Become the Wind

By: Alexander Crombie

Become the Wind
by Alexander Crombie

For more information, editorial opportunities, interview requests or review copies please contact Anne by email tslbooks@outlook.com

<http://tslbooks.uk> @tslpub
facebook.com/TSLpublications