

Retired? You must be joking

Confused by the title? Speak to retirees and most will tell you,
'Never been so busy in all of my life!'

This little book is really an anthology of my work since I retired some twenty years ago.

About the author

Beatrice Holloway is a playwright and author who has been writing children's stories since 2014. In 2015, Beatrice was appointed Children's Storyteller on Hillingdon Narrowboats Association which has led her to write about canal life. TSL has contracted to publish Beatrice's stories about Rhys and his friends. You can contact Beatrice through her author-site or Facebook. Her other publications can be accessed on Smashwords.

Beatrice has written a number of children's books: Towing Path Tales, More Towing Path Tales and A Particular Year as well as a number of science experiments for children – all available as ebooks. The London Borough of Hillingdon library service has published two of her children's stories and awarded her with a Certificate of merit – 'In recognition of an outstanding contribution to the Arts'. Beatrice was also awarded a Lottery Grant to write a commissioned historical play: Commoner to Coronet.

Beatrice is a retired teacher and a member of The Society of Women Writers and Journalists and the Society of Authors.
