

Karmic Cycle is a love story of an unusual kind, set against the backdrop of a murder mystery. In fact it begins with the murder outside a night club. Laura is a divorced artist, in her late 40s, living and working in her studio in Brighton. Her son is around 21 and at university. She is a psychic artist and has found herself able to make “reconnaissance” trips back to previous lifetimes, which has evoked images of Ancient Rome and Native American reservations. In recent times she has become fixated with a face in one of her paintings. When her son brings home a male friend Tom, she is instantly and deeply attracted to him, and they begin a relationship. Laura is convinced that she and Tom and have experienced previous lifetimes together.
