

Behind every unmarried Jewish girl, there's a Jewish mother pushing, pushing and still pushing her to change that status.

Divorcee, Ruth Gold, is struggling with acres of anxiety, streams of stress and much low self-esteem. She seems to be kicked from all directions and her mother Lillian, a glamorous 50-something bombshell, is only too keen to show her how it should be done, whilst at the same time only wanting her daughter's happiness.

Set against the backdrop of a law firm, Ruth Gold's life is one long stretch of disastrous dates, set up by her mother and well-intentioned friends, but things begin to change when she encounters the mysterious Vera, a "woman" with a past."

Hello Vera was intended as a pilot sitcom running approximately 30 mins
