

On the Farm is a collection of rhymes and illustrations covering life on the farm. The rhymes will help children learn the names of male, female and young of different farm animals, includes counting rhymes, daily life and values.

About the author

For years Lesley Samson illustrated cards and calendars for family and friends. She ran an entertainment group called The Golden Girls, choreographing and directing performances which were loved by their audiences. With the birth of her grandchildren she turned her creative interests to rhyme. She died in 2021.

Review

On the farm is a beautiful collection of poems for children about life on a farm. The poems are mainly written in rhyming verse and are packed with interesting facts about farm animals. Children will learn all about roosters crowing to wake up the farm at dawn, sheep being sheared, mother hens sitting on their eggs to keep them warm, cows being milked and a whole lot more about domestic farm animals. Robbie Cheadle
