

Three young teenagers, living in Monterey, California, find they come from the Thrice-Nine-Kingdom. They discover they and their families have been hiding from a great danger: The Sorceress of Icelandia. This powerful witch has been looking for them and their families for a long time. Finally, she finds them and will stop at nothing to capture and imprison them and all Icelandians. The teenagers escape her but their parents are captured... Will the brave threesome rescue their parents and free the people of Icelandia and the creatures of the ice who have struggled for centuries to be free?

About the author

Linda Lee Kane is an author of fantasies, thrillers, and contemporary fiction works. "Whether I am writing for adults or children, the war between my days and nights is reflected in my books. Although the tendency to acknowledge the light and dark sides of life is often disguised in my work, it's always there, lurking just out of sight."

Other books by L Lee Kane: Black Madonna: The Pope's Obsession and Death is an Illusion.
