

A collection of poems revealing the wondrous stories, amazing grace and love of God from the scriptures.

I hope you enjoy reading them as much as I enjoyed writing them.

About the author

Megan Carter has been a Christian for many years and came to faith following a family tragedy. Like so many before her, she in desperation cried out to a God in whom she did not believe. Such is the grace of God that over a period of time He revealed Himself to her and no one was more surprised than she was.

She was given a King James Bible by a Christian neighbour and told to read it – which she was desperate enough to do.

From those early beginnings sprang an understanding and amazement at seeing the heart of God that longs for all to be saved and come to a knowledge of His love.

Having always been fond of literature, Megan then began to write short poems, with the hope that they would in some way impart the wonder and majesty of the God she had found, who reveals Himself through His Word.

Commendation

As you will see from these poems, Megan's Christian faith is rooted in a real delight in Christ and His Word. As I've read through these poems I have been reminded of some that have been inspired from All Souls sermons. I was delighted to see how they had dropped into Megan's heart and found their way into her work.

My favourite poem is entitled 'The British Museum' which views the historicity of some of the Biblical material, and it is wonderful to have what we see so creatively summarised and described.

I'm delighted to commend this volume to you, and hope it will lift your heart, as it lifted mine.
