Book 1 – Sir Chocolate and the strawberry cream berries

The adventures of Sir Chocolate and Lady Sweet in poetry form. Michael came up with the idea of Sir Chocolate and Lady Sweet and many of the characters contained in the books, when he was ten years old. His ideas were such fun that Robbie decided to turn them into little verse books for his entertainment. The book contains recipes for children to make with adult assistance.

Reviews

This is really lovely. As I read it for the first time I could imagine myself reading it to my niece when she was little and see her getting excited and wanting to bake. So much better than giving a child an iPad to entertain themselves! Sadly so many children are not taught basic cookery skills anymore, baking was one of the best ways I bonded with both my niece and nephew.
