

Eyes to the East tells of the enjoyable yet naïve life that expat teachers experience within a Chinese city, and the bonds that exist between them and the local community.

When Charlie, a recent UK university graduate, arrives in Hangzhou he is excited by a world of new experiences. He is, however, unprepared for the racism, sexism and inequality he encounters and which the country's propaganda denies. Nor is he impressed by some of his fellow expats. Charlie sees elements of himself reflected in his new, more seasoned flatmate, Kevin, and is worried by what he could become. No matter how many opportunities some people are given to start afresh, they do not always change for the better.

About the author

Sam Lewis is a frequent political and foreign affairs commentator, seen on GB News, Times Radio and TalkRadio, and published within journals such as the National Interest. This is Sam's first novel, inspired by the stories he heard when he lived in China.

Category: Fiction

ISBN:

978-1-914245-62-6

978-1-914245-67-1 (ebook)

Format:

Paperback & eBook –

March 2022

(216 pages)

Available at tslbooks.uk & through online retailers

Price:

Retail £15.77

TSL £11.22

eBook: £2.66 (only Lulu.com)

Book title: Eyes to the East

By: Sam Lewis

Eyes to the East

by Sam Lewis

For more information, editorial opportunities, interview requests or review copies please contact Anne by email tslbooks@outlook.com

<http://tslbooks.uk> @tslpub
facebook.com/TSLpublications