About the authors

Julia Underwood – Widely travelled author of ten novels.

David Stroud – Born in Swansea, Wales and author of Albatross, ‘an hypnotic blend of drama, romance and humour’.

Stephen Baker – Hailing from Kingston upon Hull and an Honorary Alderman of the city, this is his first publication.

John Samson – Born in South Africa, now living in the UK, author of Cold Fiction (short stories), Powerless and Reading Lady Chatterley in Africa.

Barbara Towell – An English and Drama teacher, author of A little piece for mother, plays Wedding Bells and Faith is the Key (with John Towell), and a book of poetry.

Melville Lovatt - an award winning playwright / monologue writer whose plays have been performed widely in smaller theatres throughout London.

Reviews

A True Gentleman — John Samson (Winner of the 2018 Harrow Writers’ Monologue Competition “Vivid, Poignant, and very powerful.

This piece will linger in the memory long after the performance has ended.”

Kenneth — Barbara Towell

Kenneth once more demonstrates Barbara Towell’s true ability to reach underneath the masks people wear and the facades they choose to present to the world. Funny, forlorn and unforgettable, this very vivid piece demands to be performed.”

Football Results — Melville Lovatt

“I particularly like this piece of work. The author puts a new slant on the ‘football widow’ tale. I found the piece of work both funny and entertaining. The use of audio will be very effective in a theatre.
