

The Land of Counterpane

Tricia Price

Sally is miserable in bed with measles but she has been given The Quilt which takes her on magical journeys. Each time she strokes a patch on the quilt she becomes a time traveller attending a Victorian Christmas party, a funfair in the 1930s, going on an escapade with Bonnie Prince Charlie, joining in a medieval Mayday, going on a Georgian Mystery and becoming part of a fairy tale fantasy.

About the author

Tricia Price was born in Scotland but grew up in South Wales where she now lives. After graduating she embarked on a career in advertising, first as a copywriter and subsequently as a television executive. Among her interests she enjoys travel and life in general, agreeing with Lady Mary Montagu that it is all very interesting.
