Characters (in order of appearance)

CARTER	28 years old, company manager, not wearing black
HELENA	25 years old, CARTER's wife, wearing red
WESTON	60 years old, retired doctor
ROBERT	35 years old, stranger wearing black

Scenario

A very large and well-decorated wildlife hotel spread in hectares of land where several people stay daily. The hotel is famous for honeymooners. It is a light and pleasant cold day in November. There are some empty benches with a few staff and guests walking around. A tea and coffee stall. A shop of general items. People wandering hither and thither. Some guests are reading newspapers. Some are watching the television screen.

WESTON is sitting on a bamboo bench near the reception desk of the Wildlife Hotel. He is smoking a cigarette and reading a newspaper. CARTER joins him. They are quite unknown to one another. CARTER is on honeymoon with his newly married wife, HELENA. CARTER and WESTON begin to talk.

After some time, HELENA comes in search of CARTER and joins them having coffee.

In the meantime, ROBERT arrives looking for his wife HELENA.

WESTON says HELENA is CARTER's wife. When HELENA says nothing, CARTER challenges ROBERT to a fight, which ROBERT accepts. Both men die.
