

Be different: buy direct from the author or tslbooks.uk

The Beginning

The tree was shaking so hard that Percy, a young tree rat, was thrown out of his bed and flung through the air down into a bush. Terrified and bewildered, he could only stare in shock, as he watched the tree that he had been sleeping in with his family, being taken away on the back of a lorry. He called and searched for his parents and his brothers and sisters. But no one answered back. Where were the rest of his family? Percy's quest to find them was about to begin and it begins with Henry.

17

Percy out and down onto the ground, where he landed in a heap in a bush. He saw that the tree was now on the back of a lorry that had a picture of a tree on the tailgate, which looked similar to the one that they had been sleeping in, with some writing around it.

Percy had no idea what it all meant or where his family was. He told Henry how he had spent a long time searching and calling for them. Christmas day had arrived and Percy was all alone, scared and exhausted.