

Craig Carter Book 4

In this, book 4 of Craig Carter's adventures in space, Andocia and Craig end up prisoners of Valdena, a woman as powerful as Andocia.

Complicating matters are Craig's now enlarged family and the threats against their lives as they too venture into space.

What would you do to protect your loved ones?

Where do your loyalties lie? With family, friends, your country?

How do you stand against beings stronger and more developed than humankind?

About the author

Ilona lives in Johannesburg, South Africa with her husband. She has three grown up children, three dogs and five cats.

She has been writing since the age of thirteen and has had a number of articles published in magazines. Two recipe books and an historical book about a church have also been written by the author.

The idea for the Craig Carter series was penned at the age of seventeen, but life happened and the book was put on hold for many reasons.
