

Oh, little town of Broccoli, we see a silent star,

A coach of people got there safely.

they had travelled far.

At “The Mistletoe Inn”. Ken and Babs are ready to spoil their guests with Turkey and all the trimmings.

But, a Christmas catalogue of disastrous events falls upon them, and so does the 10-inch snow outside!

Will Barry stop moaning?

Will Josephine give birth?

Will Octavia keep her hands to herself?

With a visit from Father Christmas, an alien invasion and Tequila slammers anything could happen!!

About the author

Kim Wedler has been a teacher and globetrotter for over 20 years. Her passion for the Theatre has been a constant, both in her professional and private life. She has performed in over 60 plays and is a NODA award winning actor who, recently was also Barnet Drama Festival’s best Female Lead for two years running.

Her experience on the Stage and behind the scenes has led to her writing a number of plays and monologues. Her work both epitomises - and gives a fresh twist to - the tradition of Great British Comedy.

Her play I love you Moore is available from Silver Birchington plays. She is from North London.
